

Jim,

Thank you so much for handling my case and doing so in a professional manner.

I'm sure you had much bigger things to deal with because of Katsine, but my case was very important to me. While this case went much further than I expected (and I still feel myself very much not guilty), I recognize my errors and thank you for letting me continue my life in a more normal way.

Bob Lovett